Themes	N°	Questions	Answers				Sub-city offices				Sub-city as whole 1	2	3	4						witole
URBAN	1	Is the municipality supporting small	Yes, there are several initiati-	Yes, the municipality does	The municipalities has deve	- There are no such strategies /
ECONOMY		and medium enterprises (SMEs) and	ves promoted by the munici-	- support SMEs and microcre	e- loped a strategy for suppor-	initiatives in place yet microcredit mechanisms?	pality to support SMEs and microcredit mechanisms,		ting SMEs and microcredit mechanisms but it is not yet including women, youth and	-	being effectively implemen-2	Is there an efficient municipal stra-	Yes, there is a good strategy	Yes, there is such a strategy	ted There are some initiatives	No, there are very few initia - tegy to create job opportunities and	for creating job opportuni-	in place but it is not workin	$oldsymbol{g} \mid promoted$ by the municipa-	tives being promoted by the market activities?	ties and market activities that also takes into account the	•	lity for such a purpose, but no overall strategy and wi -	municipality for such a pur- pose to date specific needs of youth, el-		thout major results so far	1 2	How diversified is the economy of	derly and women. The economy is highly di -	The city's economy is diver	There yery few economic	A single sector dominates the your city in terms of sectors and ac-	•	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	· · · tors?	actors and sectors such as	done to improve the overal	generates some problems in	reduces tremendously the livelihood options of the ci-vices, and providing citizens		citizens	tizens with secured livelihood options
JRBAN SAFETY	Y 4	Which statement best describes the		_		1 situation of your city in relation to crime and safety?	the city at all times	is being taken to mitigate		dangerous and crime is high
		•		such a risk
	I I	Do you think that the municipality is doing enough to keep public spaces	•	•	_ · ·
	I I	safe (NB: this includes road safety)?	nicipality and public spaces	pality, and the majority of	fficiently into account; as	for such a purpose; the ma·	a result, some episodes of criminality in public spaces	jority of the city's public spa- ces are unsafe minorities	be considered as sale	are reported and road acci-6	How would you describe the police	Generally police force is pre-	Police force is present in al	dents occur often	The police presence in the presence (including community poli-	· - cing) in your city?	the city	times	adequate security in the city	7 7	What is being done in your city to	There is a comprehensive			Overall, very little is being prevent rape and sexual abuse?			place for such a purpose, d and they are often not effec -	done for such a purpose, and cases of rape and sexual abuse in the city, which is	for ensuring their effective	•	abuse are often reported effectively being implemented through various measures	_ (e.g. awareness raising campaigns, hotlines, specific trai- nings, sensitive urban planning to safety issues, etc.) OOD SECURIT	Y 8	How would you characterise access	Food is available and affor-	Overall, food is available an	d Overall, food is available ,	There are food shortages in to food in your city?	dable for all, and there are	is affordable for the majorit	but it is not affordable for	the city, with frequent peaks effective food storage/supply mechanisms in place in case		the majority of the citizens	in prices for some items of a disaster (e.g. drought,	_ 9	To what extent is (peri-)urban agri-	flood, etc.) (Peri-)urban agriculture is	(Peri-)urban agriculture	(Peri-)urban agriculture	There is very little practice of I I	culture being promoted in your city	promoted through several	is somehow promoted by	practice does occur in the	(peri-)urban agriculture in as a strategy to secure adequate food supply for all?	municipal incentives and ini- tiatives	_ ·	city, but it is not sufficiently promoted by the municipa-adequate food supply for al	lity	, , , Have (extreme) weather events heavily impacted the food supply of your			· - city in the past?	tive mitigation mechanisms	supply, but thanks to the re	of the city, and the situation	they were no mechanisms in (NB: leave blank if this kind of events, to your memory, have never				place to re-establish the nor- mal food supply, which took occurred in your city)	paredness measures (prompt	t tion could be promptly re-e s	·	1 stockpiling/ distribution me- chanisms are in place in case		authorities of food shortages, etc.)
] 11	Doge wour city have a public beauti	Voc the city has a com	Vec the city has a multiple	No the city has no no li	No, the city has no public ODDIO HEALIII	11	Does your city have a public health strategy?	·	· –	_	health strategy in place, and 1 -		very few activities are being implemented to improve pu-prevention and access to	_	though in a rather disorga-	1 1 treatment, including for the		nised manner
		1	most vulnerable	Yes, the municipality carrie	s The municipality carries out	t There is no strategy in place
	12	Is the municipality carrying out awa-	Yes, the municipality car-	 	_ , reness raising activities on epidemics	ries out frequent awareness		•	_ · · · reness raising activities on epidemics that can spread quickly in an urban	ries out frequent awareness raising activities to prevent	activities on epidemics in	occasionally, especially once	_ · · ·
		reness raising activities on epidemics that can spread quickly in an urban environment (e.g. HIV/AIDS, Ebola, yellow fever, etc.)?	ries out frequent awareness raising activities to prevent disease outbreaks in all nei- ghbourhoods	activities on epidemics in most parts of the city	occasionally, especially once epidemics break out	carry out this kind of activi- ties reness raising activities on epidemics that can spread quickly in an urban environment (e.g. HIV/AIDS, Ebola,	ries out frequent awareness raising activities to prevent disease outbreaks in all neighbourhoods Vaccination programmes to	activities on epidemics in most parts of the city Vaccination programmes	occasionally, especially once epidemics break out There are some basic vacci-	carry out this kind of activities In general, people have very
		reness raising activities on epidemics that can spread quickly in an urban environment (e.g. HIV/AIDS, Ebola, yellow fever, etc.)?	ries out frequent awareness raising activities to prevent disease outbreaks in all neighbourhoods Vaccination programmes to prevent a wide range of diseases are regularly organised	activities on epidemics in most parts of the city Vaccination programmes are organised with some free	occasionally, especially once epidemics break out There are some basic vaccination programmes in the city but they are not carried	In general, people have very little access to vaccination in						