Themes	N° Questions	Answers				Sub-city offices							Sub-city as a whole 1	2	3										wnole
PLANNING	1 Does your department efficiently ga-	Yes, a large amount of disag-	Yes, data is collected on va-	Some data is collected when No, very little inform	nation
INFORMATION SYSTEMS	ther information for planning purpo-	gregated information is sys-	rious issues but not systema-	specific needs for planning for planning is coll	I I ses	tematically being collected for planning purposes	gregated	arise 2 Does your municipal department make use of maps for planning	Yes, maps are used systemati- cally for planning purposes	1 -	Maps are used occasionally No, maps are rarely of the for planning purposes planning purposes purposes?	Construction of the second	P
URBAN	3 How effectively are urban plans being	All plans are implemented	Most urban plans are effi-	Only some plans are imple- Urban plans are poo	rly im-
ANNING AND		efficiently	ciently implemented	mented plemented/ urban pl	· 1 1
LAND Anagement	4 Do you think that existing urban	Yes, urban growth is fully	Urban growth is mostly	Urban growth is not No, it is not taken plans take into consideration future city growth and identify expansion		being taken into account in existing urban plans	enough taken into account consideration/ urba are not exister	  areas?  5 Do you think that your department			This kind of data is occasio - No, this kind of data	a is not takes into consideration data on na-	effects of climate change is	used in planning processes	nally used in planning pro- available or not use	ed for tural hazards and effects of climate change in planning processes?	fully integrated in planning processes		cesses planning purpo	ses 6 Are sensitive areas (e.g. flood plains, coastline, erosion prone areas, etc.)			A few key sensitive areas are considered as protected taken into account/considered as protected (i.e. no cons-			plans are not exis truction allowed) in urban plans?
BUILDING	7 If you consider the quality of existing		Not so vulnerable	Moderately vulnerable Very vulnerab	le CODES	housing in your city, how vulnerable is it to natural hazards such as floods, cyclones, earthquakes etc.?  8 Are building codes designed to ad-		Vec most violes and talear inte	Only a few risks are integra- Risks are not suffic	iently dress most probable and most severe	account all probable risks		ted in some building codes taken into account i	n exis-risks that the city is exposed to?  9 Do existing building codes take into	Yes, these aspects are fully	Yes, the use of eco-friendly	These aspects are not suffi- Existing building co consideration eco- friendly techniques and/or the use of local/renewab-		techniques and/or local/re- newable materials is mostly		t these le material?	building codes	mentioned in existing buil-	aspects ding codes
PUBLIC SPACE	10 Do you think that the city has enou-	_	1 gh public spaces to ensure adequate quality of life, circulation of people	_		ces and major efforts are public spaces needed to improve the situ-
	and vehicles, access to services and recreational activities, etc.?		quality of life, etc.	ation 11 Do you think public spaces in the city are well distributed geographically so		l –
	all citizens have equal	rhoods in a balanced way	but lacking in some infor-Maintenance of public spa- There is almost no n maintained?			ces is conducted occasio- nally and only in some areas nance of existing pub ces in the city	  INFORMAL SETTLEMENTS	In your estimation, what is the proportion of population living in infor-		Between 25% and 50%	Between 50 and 75% More than 75%	) mal settlements in your city?		Strategies and activities are	Strategies and activities are There are no such st	rategies or activities undertaken by the muni-	efficient and have substan-	moderately efficient	not efficient enough to subs- in place	ategies cipality for upgrading informal settle- ments?	tially improved living conditions in most informal settle-		tantially improve the life of the slum dwellers ments, especially in terms of access to basic services/infra-structure and security Strategies and activities are There are no such st i	ategies or activities undertaken by the municipality for preventing the formation	· •	* of new informal settlements?	, · -		tinuously forming at a fast Only few informal settle-	Most of the informal settle- All informal settlem hazards due to their specific location?	_	ments are located in areas exposed to	ments are located in areas located in areas expensed to natural hazards natural hazard 17 Does slum upgrading result in secu-		natural hazards	Once informal settlements Slum upgrading in t	he city rity of tenure?	ments are upgraded, all re-	ments are upgraded, the ma-	are upgraded, only few re- sidents get a land title/ lea- tion (all slum dwell	rifica-sidents get a land title/lea- sehold	land title/ leasehold	sidents get a land title/ lea- tion (all slum dwell sehold pushed away)
ENVIRON-	18 Is the municipality undertaking any	Yes, the municipality un-	Yes, the city undertakes	The city undertakes very The city does not un	dertake
MENTAL MANAGEMENT	efforts for greening the city?	dertakes greening activities	some greening activities,	few greening activities greening activit throughout the city	mostly in centrally located areas
		,	·	The city very occasionally There are no such initiatives	tiatives plementing activities and projects to	strategy and implements va-	villes for the breservation of	Cligages III such illitiatives	l l	ļ l		'		l '		The state of the s	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	The state of the s